WARSAW DEFENDERS ARE HEMMED IN BY VICTORIOUS GERMANS

Nish, Serbia, August 6. (Via London)—Another step in the effort being made to bring about a Balkan agreement so that Bulgaria, Rumania and Greece may be mustered on the side of the entente powers was taken here today by the minister of Russia, Great Britain, France and Italy who made collective representations to Nikola Paichitch, the Serbian premier.

Queenstown, August 6.—The British steamship Midland Queen which sailed from Sydney, C. B., July 21, for Glasgow was sunk on Tuesday last.

The crew of 22 and the chief officer's wife and child were rescued after being seventy-two hours in open boats.

London, August 6.—With the great Russian fortresses of Warsaw and Ivangorod captured, and the fall of Riga, the capital of the Baltic provinces imminent, the Austro-German onslaught has reached its height in the east, and the next step will be the German emperor's triumphant entry into the Polish capital. That event is likely soon to be followed by the pronouncement of a united and semi-autonomous Poland, embracing not only the territory wrested from the Russians, but the Austrian crown lands of Galicia. Meantime the Russian armies are fighting their way backward toward Russia proper, trying to fend them off the railways running north and south, in order that the ends of the German snipers may not meet and in closing bring disaster to Russian arms. The position of the army of the Grand Duke Nicholas now is a matter of solicitude, as the occupation of Warsaw is believed to be a prelude to a greater purpose, that of enveloping the retreating forces. Petrograd reports show the Grand Duke has retired to the right bank of the Vistula, both at Warsaw and Ivangorod, destroying the bridges of both points and contesting the German advance across the river. Back of the retreating Russians is the vast morass of Central Poland with few railways and primitive roads, making virtually impossible a quick movement of guns and supplies, while back of Warsaw and the only fortress available as a rallying point for the Russians is Brest-Litovsk. Thus the Russians are menaced by General Von Buelow's columns bending southward and by Field Marshal Von Mackensen's southern army bending northward. The fall of Ivangorod proper, forecast in the Russian retirement from the west of the city, is officially reported today in bulletins both from Berlin and Vienna. The occupation of Warsaw now is centering attention on a series of important events that are being arranged. First will be the selection of a German governor. Reports indicate the appointment will be a German prince, possibly a son of the German emperor, or an Austrian archduke.

Flood Takes Big Toll In Erie, Where Scores Die; Property Loss There Will Run Into The Millions

The above photograph was taken in Erie early Wednesday morning following the great flood and cloudburst which during the previous night inundated one-fourth of the city, killing scores and causing an estimated damage property of more than $3,000,000. This photo shows the new brick plant of the Leemhuis carriage and auto works, its walls cracked, the rear wall and interior washed out, and just ready to topple into Mill Creek. In the center water is seen spouting from a broken main, a sight common throughout the flooded district of Erie. This picture was taken from the second story window of a house where the water had poured in but nine hours before. Not a vestige of the household goods had been left in the cottage.

BANDITS SLAY 2 MEN; TROOP OF CAVALRY GOES TO THE RESCUE

El Paso, Texas, August 6—Arrivals from Chihuahua City today declared that Sebastian Vargas, Jr., state treasurer of Chihuahua, was executed Wednesday on orders from General Villa.

Brownsville, Texas, August 6—Mexican outlaws today raided the village of Sebastian, 37 miles north of here, killing two men. United States cavalrymen from Harlingen, 12 miles distant, have gone to Sebastian.

Fifteen rangers and armed men started from nearby points for Sebastian and practically every man in Harlingen armed himself, preparing to hunt for the outlaws. The dead are Al Austin president of the Sebastian Law and Order League and his son Charles.

The league recently forced several men of bad reputation to leave Sebastian which is little more than a scattering of farm houses with some cross roads stores. About 8:30 this morning Austin and his son were running a corn sheller when armed Mexicans galloped up taking both into the brush and killing them.

WARDEN ALLEN OUIITS

Chicago, August 6—Warden Edmund Allen, of the Illinois State Penitentiary at Joliet, declared today he would resign because Governor Dunne has denied the privilege of living outside the prison in which his wife was murdered by a convict.

Springfield, Illinois, August 6—The resignation of Warden Allen was received and accepted today by Governor Dunne, who by telegraph directed Deputy Warden Ryan to assume charge of the Joliet prison until Allen's successor was selected.

Pests I Have Met By Van No. 7--The Tightwad News Thief

You have perhaps just left your office, managed to grab an afternoon paper from the boy on the corner and catch your ear for home. You enter, find a seat, and prepare for a hasty digest of the important news events of the day before you get home, where the chances are that you will have little time for reading.

Somehow or other you cannot seem to get your mind on what you are reading about, for unconsciously you know that someone is peering over your shoulder, pilfering the news off the first page of the paper you have purchased.

You say of course that you will wait until this news thief gets interested in an article, then you will turn the page, but you very seldom do this, and you never know why.

It's one of the most disagreeable feelings in every day life to know someone is staring at you, isn't it? Well, it's lots more disagreeable to know that some lightwad is sitting behind you greedily devouring the news from your paper when he was too stingy to purchase one for himself.

Some people have been known to fold up their paper and deny themselves the news just for the purpose of frustrating this pest, but you cannot get rid of them that easily, for they usually have more nerve than the law allows, and you will perhaps be sitting there swearing silently to yourself when a head is poked over your shoulder, and a smooth oily voice inquires—"I beg your pardon, but have you finished with your paper," or "would you mind letting me glance at the front page of your paper for a moment?" Then what do you do? Nine out of ten times this pest's nerve defeats your better judgment and you do as he asks. No punishment is too severe for this pest.

LOOTERS ARE SHOT BY CITIZENS OF ERIE

Erie, Pa., August 6.—Troopers delay. Three hundred additional workmen were placed on the streets with the coming of dawn and the piles of demolished buildings were attacked vigorously under the direction of engineers who have volunteered their services to the city. It was expected that considerable headway would be made before nightfall, as the city authorities planned to add fully 1,000 men to the working forces.

Intense excitement was caused just before midnight when a heavy rainfall started a crowd along Fourth and Fifth streets, shouting, "Look out, another flood is coming." Scores of frightened men and women caught up their children and ran into the streets spreading the alarm until that section of the city was filled with people hurrying toward higher ground. A squad of policemen was hurried to the scene and restored quiet.

Efforts to relieve the distress continue with amazing success. More than 400 were fed in the Rescue station on Station street during the night while preparations were made to serve breakfast to many more. The army (Continued On Page Eight)

STREW FLOWERS ON MRS. WILSON'S GRAVE

Rome, Ga., August 6.—Scores of children and many adults paid tribute to the memory of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson today, on the first anniversary of her death, by placing flowers on her grave. The hour from nine till ten o'clock this morning was set aside for the children. Many of them went to the cemetery with only a single blossom, which they placed among the mass of floral tributes sent by organizations and individuals in many parts of the country.

The Ellen Axon Memorial Association held services at the grave later. Dr. G. G. Snyder, of the First Presbyterian church, who conducted Mrs. Wilson's funeral, led the services.

NOVELIST DIES

Denver, Colo., August 6.—Miss Eva Willer Brodhead, well known novelist and short story writer, died yesterday at her home here after an illness of eleven months. She was born at Covington, Ky., in 1870 and began literary work at the age of 18. With her husband, Henry C. Brodhead, she had lived in Denver for ten years.

HANGED IN EFFIGY

Marysville, O., August 6.—Because he refused to comply with the demands of citizens that he resign his office the town marshal of Agosta, near here, was hanged in effigy. The dummy swung across the main street of the village when residents awoke today.

NEW REVOLUTION REPORTED IN HAITI

Washington, August 6.—A new revolutionary disturbance at Gonaves on the western coast of Haiti has been reported to Rear Admiral Capeton, and he has dispatched the naval tug Osceola with forces to protect the customs house.

The admiralty reported the occupation of Port Nationale in Port au Prince by American forces without resistance. The American marines are quartered in the barracks.

WILL FIGHT TILL END

Petrograd, August 6. (Via London)—The Russian newspapers today are unanimous in stating that Russia's determination to pursue the war to a victorious end has been strengthened by the enforced evacuation of Warsaw. The Reel says: "As long as the army is intact we can confidently face the future."

ITALIAN DIRIGIBLE FALLS INTO SEA

Rome, August 6.—(Via Paris)—An official statement issued by the Italian government today says: "Last night one of our dirigible balloons flew over the Austrian fortresses of Pola and threw bombs on several points that had been previously bombarded. For reasons which it has been impossible to establish, the dirigible fell into the sea and its crew, consisting of three officers and three men, were made prisoners."

Another o' th' mysteries o' this old world is why a lot o' folks persist in talkin' about "humane principles" in wars when there "ain't no such animal." Least wise if there is I ain't seen it and I've looked around for it more'n a bit. As one Bill t' another I extend my congratulations t' th' Bill who captured Warsaw. Here's th' dope for tomorrow:

York Park Will Soon Be Like A Regular Army Camp, Jr. O. U. A. M. Hosts Coming

Sunday August 15, the state encampment of the uniformed rank of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will open at York park. Three full regiments of Ohio and two companies from Kentucky will be in camp, and between 500 and 800 visitors are expected. Final arrangements for the encampment were made by Portsmouth Council at its regular meeting Thursday evening.

The camp will resemble a regular army camp. A band of thirty pieces, a field band of 18 pieces, a signal corps, a hospital corps, an engineering corps, and a battery of artillery will be in the command. Also a complete wireless telegraph equipment in charge of Captain Theisen.

Next Sunday Captain Misner of the engineering corps will arrive with a force to lay out York park in preparation for the encampment. The whole of the park will be used for the camp, drill grounds, and parade grounds, and it will be patrolled in military fashion throughout the eight days.

Side features of the encampment include a minstrel performance by one of the Dayton companies at the high school auditorium on the evening of August 18th, noon mass on Aug. 19, which the city officials and the old soldiers will be invited to share and a sham battle at Millbrook park on Saturday, the 21st.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah Dryden
Mrs. Sarah Dryden, 68, a respected resident of Buena Vista, and wife of Darius Dryden, died last Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock at her home from cancer, following a serious illness of three months. She was buried Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at Sandy Springs. Rev. A. D. Cough, of this city, had charge of the services. Mrs. Dryden was a member of the Ladies Sewing Circle, and that organization sent a beautiful floral piece. Mrs. Dryden is survived by a husband and three children: Dryden, of Mayville, Ky., J. P. Pippis, of Sandy Springs, and Mrs. Maynard, Foster, who resides at Buena Vista and five grandchildren.

Mrs. Hoskins' Funeral
The funeral of Mrs. Anna Rohrbach-Hoskins will take place from the late home No. 120 Second street, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. E. Dibert, of the Wesley Hall Mission, will conduct the services. Burial will take place in Greenlawn cemetery.

Mrs. J. Newland
Roxa Borden Chaffin was born in Lyra, Ohio, April 17, 1842, and died at her home in Glencoe, July 10, 1915, aged 72 years, 2 months and 23 days.

She gave her heart to the Lord when she was 19 years of age under the ministry of Rev. Ellis Patton, one of the early pioneer Baptist preachers of Southern Ohio. She was married to Jacob Newland, July 4th, 1863. To this union three children were born, Edgar, Frank and Clay, all of whom survive her. Edgar lives in Tonawanda, Okla., Frank in Lewistown, Kans., and Clay in Lewistown, Wash.

She transferred her membership from the Baptist church thirty-four years ago to the M. E. church of which she was a faithful member at her death. Her life was a daily Christian walk, culminating in a triumphant death. Her suffering was great but the last hours was a peaceful sleep from which the awakening was in glory. She was a dear, good woman, and her sweet disposition is treasured in the hearts of all Glencoe people. Uncle Jake, as his friends like to call him, although almost heartbroken with grief, is resigned to the will of the Lord, who doeth all things well.

The remains were laid to rest in the Union cemetery, north of Glencoe, Sunday, Rev. C. A. Morrison, performing the last sad rites.—Glencoe Courier.

Robert Chaffin
Robert, five months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Late Chaffin, died July 6, 1915, at 1207 Twelfth street. The remains were taken to Beechy, Ky., for burial.

This hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart;
This hard, so hard to speak the words,

Must we forever part.

Dearest Robert we have laid thee
In the peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy heavenly face.

Farewell dear darling Robert,
So sweetly blooming here;
The spirit now is resting
Where angels hover near.

So innocent and lovely,
Our hearts awhile you cheered,
With tiny hearts our heartstrings held,
No earthly sorrows feared.

We must not weep and mourn,
Although our hearts are sad;
When in the brighter kingdom
His spirit is so glad.

So farewell to thee, our angel child,
Good bye our darling pet;
Your grave we'll keep forever green,
And you we'll never forget.

HOISTING THEMSELVES

Everyone of the five G. O. P. candidates for mayor, either by word of own mouth, or his literary bureau, shouts it from the housetops, that none, except himself is fit to be mayor, and it must be confessed all offer most cogent reasons why the others are unfit, by no means convincing of his own fitness.

That is a sure and also a laughable case of hoisting by one's own petard. For here is the full proposition: Unreservedly, after pronouncing the unfitness of his opponents, the pledge is made that he will support the party nominee, whoever he may be. See the absurdity of it. A man seeks office, tells the voters others are incompetent for its duties, but if any of them be nominated, rather than himself, he will support the party nominee. Thereby he makes himself unfit, because no man, who expresses a deliberate purpose to support for office some person, who is altogether unfit, can be fit himself. He is lacking in the sense that the office belongs to all the people and is to be administered for them, and with that lack it is impossible for him to be competent. In a view of the whole situation, it looks like a conspiracy to make it impossible to deny that vindication of its course that "the executive office" is seeking.

AS WE READ THEM

There are more than half a hundred other papers that come to The Times and called in the language of the craft exchanges, The Times going to all of them in return.

It is surprising how much of character, or lack of it, appears in, or is absent from them. They vary in welcome and admiration as much as do personal acquaintances and friends. Some how both the town and the personality of the makers seems reflected. Some are old and staid as are the places in which they are printed, others absolutely colorless, as must be their communities and a number are vibrant and vital, may be more nearly reflecting the quality of their editors. It is not alone though the dailies that are to be found in this class. There are several weekly publications that carry as much animation and applied ability as any and that always gets a glance of welcome, even if there be no time to read them.

Strangest of all, though, if there should be here and there one that raps and irritates just for the world like some annoying person that circumstances compel you to associate with at times. We have in mind two of especially extravagant pretension to virtue that are everlastingly and eternally prating about morals and vice, mawkishly lauding the one and canting denouncing the other. And we contemptuously toss them aside as whitened sepulchres, rotten like some other hypocrites we know.

A jury at Clarksville, W. Va., has acquitted a young man, proven of having a small flask of liquor in his pocket, on the constitutional ground, that the punishment provided for the offense, not less than a fine of $100, with prison term additional, was cruel and unusual. In a word, the jury did a little bit of constitutionalizing in its own way.

The dog poisoner is wreaking frightful slaughter at Parkersburg. Considering the character and looks of the West Virginia press, it is not to be wondered at all, that the local press does not seeth with indignation, to the contrary is rather inclined to receive the ravages as something of a blessing.

A subscriber wants to know why cows give more milk than they used to? Funny he doesn't notice how rains are falling steadily all over the country and every well and cistern is full to overflowing.

As we listen to the vociferous wind-jamming of the vocal representatives of candidates we conclude "nobody is responsible for nothin'" in a city government, but it is perfectly legitimate to claim credit for something that was never done.

It isn't surprising that Ironton couldn't keep up the pace when a live one like the Peerless finds the going mighty rough and uncertain.

Now, that man Edison is some smart. He says a food jag is worse than a whiskey jag. He would solve that high cost of living by eating less, about one-third less and drinking nothing at all.

It is said the difference between woman's pleasures and man's is that of the first of beguets heartache, while that of the latter leaves headaches.

Everywhere else, as here, they are discussing the danger of the automobile headlight and doing nothing.

The Kaps pledges stuck too long in "the thirteens" to amaze fortuitously.

Ever notice, says the cynic, that when a man's mother-in-law decides to make her daughter a visit she never misses the train.

Will some one tell us where all this water comes from, that is spreading itself all over the country?

FLOOD TIDE

THE POWER OF THE SHERIFF

Following some serious rioting, at Bayonne, New Jersey, in which several persons were killed, and which was settled with exceeding promptness by some arbitrary methods of the sheriff, discussion has arisen as to what are the powers of the sheriff.

The best answer to that is to say, in the common law of the land, in a crisis of disorder, there is no limit, except of the nerve and the ability of the sheriff himself.

An incumbent, like, the New Jersey official can do practically anything. For instance he entered a factory and disarmed guards, huddled the management together and made them promise to treat fairly and justly those that came back to work; he peremptorily forbid the strikers to hold meetings, arrested the leather lungs among them and gave them so many minutes to get out, did all the talking to the strikers himself and settled the trouble in two or three days.

That, however, was largely individual, rested in and resulted largely from the manner of a man the sheriff was. But speaking generally, a sheriff, in time of disorder, is the whole people. Any step he thinks necessary to preserve the peace, he can take. At his beck and call every able-bodied citizen must come to him, take up arms and even slay and kill at his order. This is a dangerous authority, indeed; the weak man fears to use it and the reckless makes it a frightful engine of wanton destruction and slaughter. In the New Jersey instance the man and the power were rightly balanced and exercised, so it all ended happily.

There are some things the worst of us will not do. Harry Thaw positively refuses to go into vaudeville.

Mexico is a good deal like a running sore, it sort of quiets down, only to break out with worse inflammation.

We are informed the new bridge over the Scioto will be completed on time, which just naturally raises the inquiry, what time?

New York, August 6.—There are two young men in New York who make their living in an odd way. They hire out as heroes for movie thrills. When the regular leading actor balks at circus stunts the director calls in Edward Gordon and John Austin, whose favorite outdoor sport is riding motorcycles over high cliffs and open draw bridges.

The thrill makers at one time followed the perilous occupation of ascending in balloons at county fairs. As their courage grew they came to New York and found a ready market for their nerve. Austin has descended the side of the huge Equitable building hand over hand on a rope. He also, while playing the part of a convict, leaped from a ferryboat into the floating ice of the Hudson last winter.

Gordon and Austin are educated, steady and abstemious. They say that their temperaments demand thrills. Monotony is the bane of their existence and adventure is the relish with which they flavor life.

The two dollar movie has also arrived. The Knickerbocker long known as the society theater because of its pretentious productions has been secured by a syndicate that will put on straight two dollar movie shows and the audience will dress as they would for the opera.

The Kind Words Club has been organized. Anybody can join. Bishop Charles D. Williams, of Michigan, who is spending a month in New York, is sponsor and suggester of the new organization. The club members are pledged to speak or write a word of praise whenever a kind, courteous or polite act comes under their observation.

If a member of the club sees a conductor help an aged lady to alight from a street car, it is his duty to compliment the railway employee. If a policeman is polite to a stranger or performs some similar act of courtesy it is the duty of the member to write a letter to his newspaper about it. In short it is the aim of the club to recognize kind acts whenever they are performed.

The swan song of a race is revealed in the census count of 4,451 Indians in New York against 5,060 in 1905. Few are full bred. In the north their veins carry pale face blood and Long Island they are almost negroes.

Before the white man came, the Central New York Indian was among the finest of his race. A high civilization marked his log houses and well tilled fields and his political keenness prefigured the Seymours, Marceys, and Fens.

He held the passes from the Hudson by Wood's Creek to Lake Champlain and from the Mohawk by Oneida Lake to Ontario and the interior—the routes later, of the canals and railroads, that made the Empire State.

Broadway's newest drink—non-intoxicating, of course, is called a "Cool Quick." Here is the way to make it: Take one large tumbler half filled with ice, the juice from half a lime, fill with ginger ale and after stirring it well decorate with mint. Broadway mostly likes a kick in its beverages, but somehow it has taken to the new invention of the mixerologist. If you have never indulged, take it home and try it on the refrigerator. It's harmless, anyway.

Another typical New York romance has just become public. It concerns the romantic transfer of Myrtle Higgins, a poor girl, from a hall room to the St. Regis bridal suite. In an incidental manner Miss Higgins met Col. Billy Rowe, Jr., well known about town. There was quite a difference in their ages but Col. Rowe won her over. And so—as the novelists say—they were married.

OPENS NEW GREENHOUSE

Edward Schwartz, an Indianapolis florist, has just opened a fine new green house on Thirteenth street above Findlay. It will be heated by steam. Mr. Schwartz was until recently associated in business at the Hoosier capital with a brother who was called to army service in Germany and two days after going to the front was killed in battle.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR,
LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Grandma's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur dyes so naturally that nobody can tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also cures dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyllie's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 60 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, so it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

That Girl Who Sits Behind Me
I'm forced to say that every day in a picture show you'll find me; The picture's great, but how I hate That girl who sits behind me!

The railroad train across the plain
Is rushing to destruction—
The headlight beams—the whistle screams—
"Oh, Mamie! look at that hat in the third row! Honest, Mamie, I wouldn't be caught dead in such a lid!"

The movie queen comes on the screen—
The sleuth is just behind her—
He lifts his hand—the gory brand—
"Did you see th' show over to th' Comique th' other night? Honest, I ain't never seen seen such a swell death in the movies. Gosh! How that Lilian Gish can kick the bucket!"

The half-breed creeps—look there! he leaps
Upon the sturdy time-lock! The shadows lit—the fuse is lit—"I just love a tragedy! Good night! It's ten after four! Bye-bye, kid! I gotta date in the third row of the Strand at half past."

The Markets

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Aug. 6.—Although a few of the war stocks made further gains in the early trading today the market as a whole was irregular and the edge seemed to have been taken off the rise. Bethlehem Steel jumped seven points to 308 a point above its previous high. Other high records were made by General Motors, which rose five points to 197 and Willys Overland up 2 to 141. A few other industrial rose about a point each but as a general things prices changes were slight. Steel sold at 72½, on a level with yesterday's high record, and then reacted a point. Allis Chalmers, Studebaker and Continental Can were heavy. Railroads were unusually quiet.

The forenoon market lacked definite tone. Stocks were panned out in quantity at the early high levels and professionals who had followed the upward movement hurriedly reversed their positions. Later a number of specialties gave a striking exhibition of independent strength. Crucible Steel was rushed up nearly six points to 83¾. Bethlehem also added several points to its initial rise, touching 311. Traders shifted their operations frequently into miscellaneous shares which had not made an advance commensurate with the rest of the list. Pool operators obtained a considerable commission house following by their success in marking up their favorites. Bonds were irregular.

The market proved vulnerable to speculative selling after Crucible Steel had mounted to 83¾. Sharp reactions brought forth supporting orders and the list again made headway upward. The closing was strong.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, Aug. 6.—Wheat underwent a setback in price today on account of warmer and generally fine weather. There was a marked increase of country offerings to arrive, especially from Illinois and Nebraska. Besides dispatches from the spring wheat states reported conditions as if made to order to ripen the crop ahead of rust. Opening prices which ranged from 7½ decline to ½ advance, were followed by losses all around before the market began to react. Better weather sent a majority of commission houses to the selling side of corn. The market was also bearishly affected by the weakness in wheat. After opening ½ to ½ lower prices suffered a moderate additional decline. Oats felt the weight of large overnight purchases from first hands. Demand for futures developed only after a sharp break in values. Lower prices for hogs pulled down provisions. The market lacked support.

Reports that large export were in the market had no lasting effect on prices, fresh losses being suffered. The close was steady 1½ to 1¾%.

Somewhat improved crop reports had a tendency afterward to ease the market still more. The close was weak, ¾% to 1½% lower.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60.

Miss Dolly Wise.—Was Charles Becker, who recently was executed at Sing Sing prison, always a Catholic?

B. V. D.

No. He was a Lutheran, but when he became a Catholic he was known. He was a Catholic before his first trial.

Dear Miss Wise.—When a young man is calling on a young girl and in leaving she does not ask him to call again, would it be all right for him to ask to call?

CARL.

Ask her when you may see her again. If she names a definite date, you may know she wants you to call.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am sixteen years of age. A man of thirty-five has asked me to go auto-riding with him. Do you think I should go?

AFRAID.

Not unless he asks your mother or some older woman to accompany you.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am invited to a party which is to be given for a bride-to-be. Am I expected to call on her afterward?

ANXIOUS.

Certainly. A call within the week is the height of courtesy.

Dear Miss Wise.—Do you consider the use of perfume vulgar?

SAMANTHA.

Not if it is used moderately.

THE STARVING MILLIONS

You would think they were starving the way they bite holes in your epidermis these warm nights. A twenty-five cent bottle of Skeete-Dope will protect you for the balance of the season. Telephone Flood & Blake, No. 93, adis well spent if you spend it at WENDELKEN'S. Watch, clock and jewelry repairing. Work called for and delivered. 903 Gallia St.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am going to entertain a small number of friends one evening next week and I should like some suggestions as to how I may entertain them.

POLLY.

For a party of twenty or fewer a "stunt party" is good fun. Each guest must do something to entertain the rest—recitations, slight of hand tricks, songs, monologues, etc. Almost every one can do some stunt well. For a larger party I suggest a few pre-arranged charades, with your cleverest guests as actors and actresses. Make your guests entertain each other and they will entertain themselves.

Dear Miss Wise.—I wish to ask you something. I'm a girl of 22. A young man of 23 is in love with me and asked me to marry him. I like him, but I don't know if I truly love him. Won't you please tell me how I can find out if I truly love him?

ANNA.

Can't you delay the fatal answer for a while? About the only way to bring yourself to a decision would be to go away, and then if you find that you are very lonely for a "certain" person and will not be happy without him, you can be quite sure that he is the one.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am 18. Last fall I met a young man who fell in love with me. He came to see me for a half year, then remained away. I felt broken-hearted for some time, but did not run after him or try in any other way to get him back. A few weeks ago he came to my own town and stopped to see me. During his visit, he spoke in a manner to win my love again. Does he love me? Kindly advise of this new interest.

C. L.

You have every reason to believe that he is in earnest in wishing to make up with you. Love seems to have returned again. Be pleasant, sincere and cupid will do the rest.

Worth Knowing
After washing the hair a good way to rinse it, fill a sprinkling can with water, suspend it on a nail above the head over the sink or bathtub, the water comes with force enough to thoroughly rinse all soap from the head.

Add two tablespoonfuls of butter, a cupful of milk and a cupful of blueberries, over which a tablespoonful of flour has been sifted. Pour into a buttered pan and steam for an hour and a half. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. James Barnett, in Long Meadow, Thursday evening, for their regular monthly meeting.
There was quite a lot of business part of which had to be postponed until the next regular meeting.
They realized quite a neat little sum from their boat excursion, about $23.75. The people all enjoyed the excursion so much that they ask that another excursion be given soon, so the society has decided to give another one in about two weeks. They will also have a bake sale Saturday, Aug. 8, to which the public is cordially invited to come and buy good home-made cooking.
This organization is the live wire of the church, as it has been doing a great work, and with our minister's wife as our efficient president we expect to do greater things. She is an accomplished lady, one that the Christian church and the community at large may be proud of, and above all she is a sweet Christian woman, devoting her time and her mind to the uplifting of humanity, always thoughtful of others. With a member like that we can expect to do great things. We will soon start a building fund and expect to donate liberally for our new church building that will soon be erected.
There was a large number present and the hostess proved equal to the occasion as they all seemed to enjoy the evening greatly.

These little tots made the journey all the way from Broken Hill, Australia to New York city, a distance of 10,000 miles, just to be present at their mother's birthday party. It is a family custom with the Gepps to have a reunion on the mother's birthday. This custom was not to be broken this year, even though it meant a round trip of 20,000 miles for the children.

CONVICT IS SHOT TO DEATH BY GUARD IN OHIO PENITENTIARY

Columbus, August 6.—George Rayso, 39, serving an indeterminate sentence from Cuyahoga county for forgery, was shot to death at the penitentiary early this morning by Guard Earl Hostetter. Rayso was quartered in a cell with Roy Cole, who is serving 10 years from Licking county for shooting with intent to kill. The guard was attracted to the cell by Cole's outcries. Cole had been attacked by Rayso with a sharp piece of steel. When Hostetter opened the cell door Rayso made at him. Rayso fell dead when the guard fired one shot.

Cole has 26 stab wounds on his body. Rayso was an Austrian and began his term July 9 last. The knife used by Rayso was a piece of steel, which he had sharpened to a point. For a handle he had wrapped a rag around one end of the instrument, which, it is thought, he picked up in the yard and slipped it into his cell. Cole could give no motive for Rayso's attack on him.

Guard Hostetter was appointed from Adams county.

After Cole recovered consciousness he declared that Rayso had hoisted to him during his frenzied assault that he intended to murder him and cremate his body as a propitiatory offering for the success of Austrian arms in the campaign against Russia. He talked wildly of blood sacrifice and the necessity, therefore, revealed to him in a dream by the members Archduke Franz Ferdinand, slain by Serbian agitators in Bosnia, an act which was the primary cause of the present European war. Cole declared that he never had any trouble with Rayso nor had he ever discussed the war with him.

Guard Hostetter's act was fully endorsed by Warden Thomas, who stated that no action would be taken in the matter.

Mayor Stern's relief fund continued to grow, having passed $14,000 early in the day. Additional offers of assistance from outside sources came in, but the committee declined all of them with the exception that the city could take care of its destitute till they were again at work.

Floating Hotel To Close, Girls Grieve

New York, August 6.—Warning that the oldest hotel in New York will be closed on August 23, when more than fifty working girls are to be sent ashore from the ship Jacob A. Stabler, today caused much unhappiness among the occupants of the floating hotel. A notice posted on the bulletin board of the Stabler's deck read that Arbockle's Deep Sea Hotel Company has decided to retire from the hotel business and will serve no meals after August 23. For years the Stabler has been a home for girls employed in shops and stores, at a cost to them varying from $2.30 to $3.50 a week. Many of them earned only $4 a week and fourteen of the girls are now unemployed. The city fire department had ordered changes to be made in the Stabler, and it was said that the company did not wish to go to the expense of making them. The old ship, built in 1897, was purchased by John Arbockle in 1901 and for several years has been moored at a pier in the East river

FRENCH DISAPPOINTED

Paris, August 6.—While the fall of Warsaw had been discounted here some time ago, the delay in the capture of the city had given rise to the hope that the Polish capital might still be saved and its occupation by the Germans is something of a disappointment to the French public. The military necessities are fully recognized, but it is also fully recognized that the Germans will proclaim a great victory from which the people of that country will derive great encouragement. The victory is in no way decisive because the Russian army remains intact and the news generally has been received stoically.

WILL SEND APPEAL TO MEXICAN LEADERS

Washington, August 6.—The conference between Secretary Lansing and six Pan-American diplomats whose co-operation was sought by President Wilson in his plan to restore peace in Mexico was continued today.

No announcement of the conclusions of the series of conferences begun yesterday, is looked for until a program has been perfected. The conferees decline to discuss the proceedings. What ever plan of action is agreed upon will be submitted to all of the Pan-American nations for approval although it is understood they already have pledged support to concerted action.

It is considered likely that one of the first results of the conference will be a final appeal to all the Mexican factional leaders to accommodate their differences and restore peace. This probably will be sent in a few days and will be intended especially for Carranza element which all along has declined to participate in a conference. The message to General Carranza will ask that he lay down his arms and join with his adversaries in setting up a government of the United States will recognize. It will insist that he answer within a stipulated time. The character of the final plans for restoration of peace depends largely on Carranza's response. General Villa and other Mexican leaders have indicated a willingness to participate in a peace conference.

Ohio Wheat Prospect Is Placed At 111

Columbus, August 6.—The state crop report issued by the State Board of Agriculture today showing the condition of crops on August 1, gives ground for still more optimism as to the Ohio wheat crop. It puts the prospect at 111. The same figure is given as to the oats prospect. Potatoes are given as 106, apples at 80, peaches 71 and pears 61.

The clover hay yield is put at 1 1/3 tons per acre and the quality 82. The timothy hay prospect is placed at 90. The recent flood came after the call blank had been sent out but many of the correspondents volunteered information as to the extent of the damage to crops. It was not considered in making up the report, but an estimate may be made of the damage from such reports as were sent in.

OHIO MINE CASE IS RESUMED

Columbus, August 6.—Hearing of the Ohio mine case resumed before the commission, Attorney John P. Wilson, at yesterday afternoon's session tried to get the Public Utilities Commission to hold the meeting today, and that late today the meeting will recess for about a week to allow a time for the preparation of additional evidence.

With the statement that the new coal tariffs of the Hocking Valley railroad, recently filed with the State Public Utilities Commission have been filed since the complaint made against the railroad by the miners and that therefore the complaint against the Hocking Valley should not be included in the roads being tried before the commission, Attorney John P. Wilson, at yesterday afternoon's session tried to get the Public Utilities Commission to hold the meeting today, and that late today the meeting will recess for about a week to allow a time for the preparation of additional evidence.

GIVE REASONS FOR FALL OF WARSAW

Petrograd, August 6. (Via London)—Novogeorgievsk 19 miles northwest of Warsaw, still remains in Russian hands today notwithstanding the evacuation of the Polish capital, according to information received by the Warsaw war office.

The fortress has been prepared for a siege and it already is invested. It constitutes the only fortified position in the Vistula river in possession of the Russians. The immediate causes of the evacuation of Warsaw, according to the war office were "the advances of the enemy in great force on the roads toward Ostrow, from Ostrolenka." A war office official reviewing the situation said:

"The day before the evacuation we already had abandoned the old brick fortress of Ivango on the left side of the Vistula. We still hold the right bank fortifications, but inasmuch as this fort lost its importance with the abandonment of the left bank of the position, strictly speaking the only fortified point in our hands at present is Novogeorgievsk."

"According to information at hand the enemy has been making every effort to envelop the position and the fortress has been left to its own resources."

"Our armies in the forward theatre are gradually drawing back to the positions assigned them, thus giving these armies the important advantage of a shortened front and also of bringing them nearer to the fortified line of Kovno, Grodno and Brest-Litovsk. The retreat was carried out not under immediate pressure of the enemy but in consequence of a decision taken notwithstanding some instances in which our armies, were having partial success. With the occupation of new positions on the left bank of the Bug and in the direction of Wladimir-Wolynsk and Kovel it is believed that a serious barrier to the enemy's progress on Brest-Litovsk has been erected."

"The loss of Warsaw had long been discounted in Petrograd and it caused no excitement. The newspapers commented on the fall of the Polish capital without emotion referring to its loss as a necessity but which is regarded by them as being only temporary."

WOMAN IN BAD CONDITION

Restored To Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Montpelier, Vt. — "We have great faith in your remedies. I was very irregular and was tired and sleepy all the time, would have cold chills, and my hands and feet would be numb. My stomach bothered me, I had pain in my side and a bad headache most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me lots of good and I now feel fine. I am regular, my stomach is better and my pains have all left me. You can use my name if you like. I am proud of what your remedies have done for me." — Mrs. Mary GAUTHIER, 21 Ridge St., Montpelier, Vt.

An Honest Dependable Medicine. It must be admitted by every fair-minded, intelligent person, that a medicine could not live and grow in popularity for nearly forty years, and to-day hold a record for thousands upon thousands of actual cures, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, without possessing great virtue and actual worth. Such medicines must be looked upon and termed both standard and dependable by every thinking person.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for a free. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

DYNAMITE FOUND ON LINER ARABIC

New York, August 6.—It became known at police headquarters here today that a stick of dynamite was found aboard the White Star Liner Arabic before she sailed from this port for Liverpool on July 28. The explosive in such a state of deterioration that experts said it would have exploded at the slightest jar was found by a stewardess. It was wrapped in newspapers. According to the information received at police headquarters the dynamite was taken there and after being examined was destroyed. In notifying the police of the finding of the dynamite officials of the steamship company, it was said, asked that no publicity be given to the fact.

Mine Case Delayed Until August 17th

Columbus, August 6.—Finding the case of greater scope, and presenting greater complications than they had expected, attorneys for the mining interests in the hearing before the Public Utilities commission, at noon today asked for a recess until a week from next Tuesday morning, August 17, which was agreed to by the railroad interests and granted by the commission. At the date set, the miners' attorneys said they expected to go on through with their case without delay. It now seems that public sentiment in favor of settling the disagreement between the miners and the operators rushed both sides into the hearing too quickly, and that neither side was as well prepared as it should be. The illness of Charles S. Sisson, of the Hocking Valley Railroad at Nelsonville, Ohio, discontinued the hearing at noon today. This afternoon might have been taken up with his testimony and the recess for a week taken tonight, had Mr. Sisson been able to be present. The delay of a week, however, had been decided upon before the first session started Thursday.

Expect Rev. Hart To Take Pastorate Of Local Church

Rev. W. M. Hart, of the Madisonville Baptist church, Madisonville, Cincinnati, will arrive Saturday noon to complete arrangements for the accepting of the pastorate of Kendall Avenue Baptist church. There are but a few slight differences to be settled and the members feel sure that Rev. Hart will accept the pastorate offered to him several weeks ago. He delivered a trial sermon at Kendall Avenue church in June and made a splendid impression. He is married and has a ten year old daughter. He expects to move his family here in September, providing he accepts the pastorate. Rev. Hart has been pastor of the Madisonville church for several years. The local church has been without a regular pastor since last December, when Rev. William Melton left after being here for three months. Rev. Paul Langhorne was pastor of the church before Rev. Melton.

Rev. Hart will deliver his first sermon Sunday morning.

WHAT DYSPPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which, by chemical action in the stomach, develops acidity. Those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, should try a meal of any food, or foods, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisaturated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisaturated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and ant-acid known. It has direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which follows the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. Do not dose an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs, but get rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisaturated magnesia from The Fischer & Stroeh Pharmacy, Portsmouth, O., eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisaturated magnesia, as directed above, and note remarkable results. Bisaturated Magnesia, No. 25 E. 26th Street, N. Y. C.

BROTHER KILLED BY AN ENGINE

Charles Rose, of 213 Eighth street, left for Bellingham, Wash., Thursday immediately after receiving a telegram that his brother F. V. Rose, had been killed by an engine at Everett, near Bellingham. F. V. Rose was an engineer on the Great Northern R. R. and leaves a wife and two sons. He went to Washington some years ago and at the time of death owned a large amount of real estate. His father was deputy sheriff of Rowan county, Ky., and was killed during the Tolliver-Underwood feud. Besides a wife and two sons the deceased leaves a mother, one sister, Mrs. William Sperry, of Tygart, Ky., and four brothers: Charles, of this city, and Perry, Gillen, Jeff Gillen and Lindsey Gillen, of Tygart, Ky. Burial will be made at Bellingham.

MOOSE DELEGATE HOME, GETS FINE PROMOTION

Upon his return Thursday night from his trip to the Western coast, where he took in the national convention of the Loyal Order of Moose, William Barron was notified by the Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co., that he had been promoted to the position of district manager of the Cincinnati store, his territory extending from the lakes to the gulf, and from Pittsburgh to Indianapolis. For several years Mr. Barron, who is an authority on the bowling game, as well as pocket-billiards, has represented the above company as traveling salesman. He is to be succeeded in that position by Chas. Brunswick. His new position carries with it a handsome increase in salary and it is likely that it will be necessary for him to make his headquarters in Cincinnati.

While on his Western trip, he took in the Panama-California Exposition at San Diego and the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco. The Moose convention was held at San Diego. Mr. Barron had the opportunity of witnessing the initiation of William J. Bryan into the order of Moose and listened to an address by Hiram Johnson, governor of California, and one of the members of the board of governors of Mooseheart, National home of the Moose.

Mr. Barron will give an extended account of his recent trip before the local lodge of Moose on Tuesday night a week. He had a pleasant trip and came back home looking fine and dandy, and, incidentally, a bigger and better Moose than ever.

Routed 4 Men

Charles Stahl, of North Gay street, while at the home of a neighbor Thursday night, was attracted by the screams of his wife, and rushing to his house found four men in the yard trying to force an entrance. He put all four to rout, but not until one had jabbed him on the jaw with some sharp instrument. Two lost their hats in their flight, and these hats are now in the hands of the police.

LOYALTY DAY BROUGHT DEFEAT TO SPENCERITES

Large Crowd Saw Devore's Crew Win, Errors Did Damage

(By F. W. SHERIDAN)

BENEATH clouded skies, and amid the strains of martial music, peeped upon by more than 200 eyes, those prodigious Champs of ours were given a lacing at the hands of Josh Devore's Maysville Colons, Thursday afternoon, to the tune of 4 to 2, turning Loyalty Day into a melodrama where the hero is slain in the last act and the dark-skinned villain waltzes to the altar with the hand painted heroine, as his very own.

Part of the way it was all right, for the locals jumped upon the port side delivery of "Muck" McGraynor, which finds the going rather easy, in Class D, and ere the first round had come to a close had a two run lead, both chalkers being as cleanly earned as the wages of a deck hand on a Mississippi river steamboat.

Pact of the matter is that the slugger was all set for a victory. The crowd was there in abundance and spirit, and grounds were in apple pie order and everything in perfect alignment. The only thing that really could happen to spoil the day was a hazing for the goit, hazing—and that is what they got. That victory was not perched high on the banner of Portsmouth was not particularly the fault of Mr. Hancock, but of many a battle, and who acted as chief gunner for the Spencerites, his support came at critical moments, the guilty one being the small pock-faced, curly-haired fellow who was seen from Charleston, our boys found the fans of this fair metropolis had been liberal enough to purchase upwards of 500 Loyalty Tags at one dollar per throw, wanted to get the biggest heart out of it, and to hand over the money to Mr. Devore and his hired help. Their motive was not particularly appreciated by the fans, who in doubt will now feel more kindly disposed with the above explanation in front of their eyes.

The game was an interesting one at that, even if our boys did kick over the fence and spill the punch. The Spencerites, however, sustained their aggressiveness in the very first stanza, when they sent Mr. Graynor, the comely one, flying, reception, landing on back, for several extra base swells before the game was out of its swaddling clothes. However, Mr. McGraynor, who has been changed in more ways than one, perhaps, took an extra life in his trousers, and after the first inning had passed, settled down like a cat on a hot tin roof, and used excellent judgment for, although his delivery was nicked for seven solid smashes, he managed to keep a stiff bit on the locals and did not allow them to get within a mile of the watering trough on the other hand.

On the other hand, Mr. Hancock, one of those foxey devils, was known how to pitch, loyally the Maysville contingent for four stanzas, and with the proper kind of support would have beaten the visitors 2 to 1. Errors, however, are a part of the game and four hits with five errors will generally beat seven hits and no errors—a full house beats a straight anytime, so the card sharks say. Mr. Hancock also walked five men. When "Hank" is liberal he doesn't show his charity, but the locals were defeated means little. A bludge into the past will reveal many defeats, which, happily, were topped with so many victories that the pennant for the first half came right to Millbrook.

The visitors were relieved in order in the first four innings, and Hancock looked to be in for a big day. In the fifth, however, he and his hired help were changed away at the first ball pitched and both secured the singles. This sort of nettled Hancock and he wavered just long enough to pass Tipton on wide ones. Henderson shot a long fly to Sharrman and DeBerry came home after the catch. Kelly and McGraynor were pipped.

In the sixth the visitors scored an other run. If Devore ruled to second, then Emmet slid to left. Tipton followed to first on a pitcher's gift. Emmet taking third on Johnson's peg that went through Bush. He scored on the Berry's fly to left. McHenry's chuck home catching Emmet in the middle of the back. Tipton stole and Manager Devore walked, only to be forced by Tipton, so named that all will seem perfectly natural to him when he draws a wash bowl home.

The seventh was the round of night mare. Henderson popped to Bush, and Kelly sent a little letter to middle under which Sharrman was camping for a sure out. Some one yelled for Tipton, and the little fellow hustled his injured leg toward the center field pitcher as fast as he could and attempted to pull the heated ball to port. However, he allowed the pesky thing to drop, amid groans from the stadium. Kelly pitched and scored on McGraynor's line single to left. Bush then muscled a double play by booting it. Devore's roller and Emmet walked, jamming the cushions. On Tipton's roller to Hancock, McGraynor was forced at the plate. Then Dillhoefer was hit by the error bug and missed DeBerry's sud buster. If Devore registers, Manager Devore called to prompt. The locals did all their exertion in

TENNIS NOW BEGINS TO RIVAL BASEBALL

Tennis fans have been pleased to watch the remarkable strides their favorite pastime has been making in recent seasons. Many declare that tennis is sure to rival baseball and perhaps overshadow it within a few more years.

However, young Mac tried hard enough and while he failed to deliver a bingle, he is able to knock the cover off the ball today. In which event the telephone wires will carry the news to his noted surgeon-father.

President Bill Cagleman was all smiles yesterday. In fact the good-natured president has been feeling chipper for the past week or so, and ever since the Loyalty Committee began to hustle. The crowd was larger than he expected, especially after those dark, ominous clouds began gathering in the west. The money received as a result of the sale of tags will go a long way towards liquidating the indebtedness hanging over the team. When Portsmouth fans try their darndest, the result is never in doubt.

Incidentally, the club owners are quite anxious that those people who received tickets, good for two games and which were to sell for one dollar, come this time, would make a report at once. At every game quite a number of these tickets are given the gate keepers. So far there has been but few settlements, and the club owners are desirous of getting the unsold tickets in as well as the cash.

Now that the team is home for a long stretch of games, the fans of this city are expected to rally to the club and help put the boys at the top where they will look better. Their ardent temperament makes their present habitation seem all out of place. Come now, fans, a pull altogether and those Charleston Senators will soon be served with ejection notices.

In the fourth frame Hancock, who had been going great guns, fanned H. Devore, Emmet and Tipton in succession. The intelligent hurler was given a hand. And the three players moved quickly as Hancock's offerings floated by. Emmet, former Spencerite, had a queer record at the bat. He fanned twice, received two walks and slapped out a single. In the field he cared for everything that came his way.

While the locals had quite an amount of pepper, nevertheless they did not feel as chipper as they would had they not been forced to take that all night ride from Charleston. They arrived in Portsmouth ere the sun was up Thursday morning, all of them missing their beauty sleep, which they claim is between 6 and 10 a. m. Watch out for them now that they have a chance at regular meals and hours.

Hancock pitched a leddy and crafty game—the kind he generally likes. With clean support he would have held the Maysville team to one lone chalker. He was wild at times, but always settled down to prevent scoring. However at these times his support became very putrid and the bombs that resulted blossomed into runs. McGraynor started out as though he would be slammed off the mound. After the old fan played one run yesterday and drove in two others. He had but one chance to catch a thief, and made such a perfect hurl that Sharrman, the would-be stealer was slipped several feet.

Harry Devore is one of the fastest steps in the league, and Caton's play on him in the opening inning was the real fielding feature of the game. Caton, who is sometimes "lovingly" referred to as the "mud-hen," made a beauty stop off before, blocking the ball after it crossed the second sack. Without waiting a second and while off his balance, Caton made a perfect hurl to Spencer, nipping Devore by an eye-lash.

Dr. McHenry, noted sire of Left Field, or McHenry, came up with his Blue Greek home to witness the game. Of course he was disappointed at the result, for he is a strong supporter of the Portsmouth team. Incidentally, he was disappointed in that his athlete son failed to drive out a solid shot.

Thursday's Scores

Yankees, 11; Bigelow, 9.
Cardinals, 5; All Stars, 4.
The All Stars, winners of last year's pennant in the Peerless League, were presented with their pennant Thursday; this day being set aside as pennant day in this league. Before the presentation exercises took place, the Yankees and Bigelows played the first game of the afternoon, the former winning 11 to 9.

Just before the All Star-Cardinal game, the All Stars lined up near the pitcher's box, where they were presented with their beautiful red and white pennant, which was presented by Mr. O. W. Ridenour, a prominent local Boy Scout worker.

Mr. Ridenour made the boys a neat little speech, as follows: "It gives me great pleasure this afternoon to present this pennant, because the old Peerless League has proven herself the fastest and staunchest league in boys' baseball in this city. Three years ago this summer this league got its start on the old River City diamond in the East End, and ever since that day this organization has demonstrated the finest brand of clean sport ever witnessed in amateur baseball. I am glad to say that the great success of the league this season shows that it is still a live organization, containing some as clean athletes as ever trod in shoe leather. It is also a great pleasure for me to present this pennant because of the clean and game bunch of athletes who are to receive it—the All Stars. I have been informed by those at the Boys' Headquarters that this little team hasn't a scratch against their record. That's fine, and I have discovered this season as I have watched your games as a spectator that there isn't a quitter on the team. No wonder, boys, that you can win pennants. Those kind of fellows always come out on top."

Manager George Jeffords was then called forward and the pennant was placed in his hands by Mr. Ridenour. The umpire then gave the command to play, and the All Stars and Cardinals faced each other in what proved to be one of the fastest games of the season.

The first four innings of the game was a classy pitcher's duel between Jeffords and Worthington. In the fourth round Jeffords weakened and Smoky Davis came to the rescue. Davis was also in rare form, and the Cards were unable to connect with his offerings until the last round. Worthington breezed along like a big leaguer until the ninth with the score 4 to 0 in his favor, but in this round the All Stars put 4 across the pan, as follows: Weber led off with a single; Collis singled, and Weber scored on Davis' sacrifice fly to deep center. Schulz placed a sizzling hot twobagger through short and scored on Wood's error. H. Doll got on by Clausen's error, and scored on Lewis' single. This tied the score, but not for long. The Cardinals won the game in their half of the ninth, when Worthington walked, stole second and scored on Selsor's double, making the final score 5 to 4 in the Cardinal's favor. The outstanding feature of the game was the brilliant and spectacular fielding of Ellis, the Cardinal's shortstop. The score:

Best Treatment for Catarrh S. S. S. Removes the Cause

Specialists in Catarrh troubles have agreed that it is an infection of the blood. The laboratories of the S. S. S. Co., at Atlanta, have proven it. Once you get your blood free from impurities—cleansed of the Catarrh poisons, which it is now a prey to because of its unhealthy state—then you will be relieved of Catarrh—the dripping in the throat, hawking and spitting, raw sores in the nostrils, and the disagreeable bad breath. It was caused, in the first place, because your impoverished blood was easily infected. Possibly a slight cold or contact with someone who had a cold. But the point is—don't suffer with Catarrh—it is not necessary. The remedy S. S. S., discovered over twenty years ago, tested, true and tried, is always obtainable at any drug store. It has proven its value in thousands of cases. It will do so in your case. Get S. S. S. at once and begin treatment. If yours is a long standing case, be sure to write the S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga., for free expert medical advice. They will tell you how this purely vegetable blood cleanser cleanses the impurities from the blood by literally washing it clean. They will prove to you that thousands of sufferers from Catarrh, after consistent treatment with S. S. S., have been freed from the trouble and all its disagreeable features and restored to perfect health and vigor. Don't delay the treatment. Take S. S. S. at once.

COMPTON CASE INDICATES THE LAW'S STERN HAND IS TURNED AGAINST FEDS

American association club owners are taking a great deal of satisfaction in the fact that attorneys for the St. Louis Federal league club have given up the fight to keep Pete Compton, who slipped from the Kansas City American association team. Portsmouth Policeman Gets A Black Eye In New Boston

Ray Moore, city policeman, was the victim of an assault and was arrested and locked up in the village jail when he went to New Boston, Thursday afternoon, on business.

Clifford Counts, who has been in more fights than any man in New Boston, was Moore's assailant. According to Moore, he had stepped from a street car about four o'clock and had proceeded only a few steps when Counts hailed him, saying, "Have you seen my father-in-law lately?" As Moore replied "No," Counts struck him. Says Moore, "Harve James, of Salt Lick, Ky., is Counts' father-in-law."

According to Moore, two other strangers jumped onto him, but Charles Appleton and Will Tammer, who were near at hand, stopped the scamp, Appleton holding Moore and Tammer holding Counts.

Moore was knocked to the ground and received two fist blows on his head, he having a black and blue mark above his eye and a black eye. Moore did not return a blow, not wishing to have trouble.

Counts is said to have told friends that Moore had been flirting with his wife of a few months, but this Moore strongly denies. Moore knew Counts' wife when they boarded at Counts' home in this city and he took her to two shows, and that was the extent of their relations according to Moore.

Moore was placed under arrest by Marshal Will Davis and locked up for several hours until a $25 bond was furnished by a fellow officer.

Counts was not arrested at the time, but on his release Moore swore out a warrant for his arrest, charging him with assault and battery.

Counts could not be located Thursday night and friends say he left for Kentucky.

Chief McCarty says that Moore ought to have arrested Counts, as he had full power under the law. Marshal Davis says he arrested Moore as he was in trouble in the village before, and because he was carrying a gun.

An effort is being made to capture Counts, who has a workhouse sentence hanging over him. He served a sentence at the workhouse not long ago.

Officer Moore was given a preliminary hearing Friday morning by Mayor Davis and pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault. He was released with orders to appear Monday evening for trial. Counts wasn't located Friday.

Praise For The Fresh Air Camp

The Fresh Air Camp conducted by the local Anti-Tuberculosis League is making good. The following unsolicited communication from a young man who has been a patient at the camp for several weeks is sufficient proof: The Anti-Tuberculosis League, City.

Dear Friends:—Regarding the Fresh Air Camp, I am glad for the opportunity to express the experience I have gained from my two weeks' stay here.

I am sure at the time of entering this camp my physical condition would not have permitted me to have traveled to another climate. But if said condition would have permitted me to go, it would have been impossible to have gained better results than has been accomplished in this local camp.

Within the past four weeks I have had twenty-two hemorrhages, twenty before entering the camp and two since. Owing to the fresh air and good treatment I have received constantly, I have been able to respond from my weakened condition until at present it is hardly noticeable.

I hope all the people will soon realize the necessity of such a movement, and what can be accomplished at home as well or better than abroad.

I am more than glad to recommend the camp, good treatment, and sanitary conditions found therein, and to congratulate the promoters. (Signed)

W. C. RANKIN.

The members of the league are well pleased with what has been accomplished so far and hope that many other people in the early stage of tuberculosis will avail themselves of the opportunity to regain their health at home. It is no longer necessary to go far away from home and live among strangers. Here your relatives can visit you daily, your own family physician can prescribe for you, and your expenses are nothing unless you are able and desire to pay for your board.

BODY FOUND IN SCIOTO MAY BE THAT OF VICTIM OF RECENT BIG FLOOD

The telephone message received by the police from a point up the valley, Thursday afternoon, that the body of a man was seen floating down the Scioto river, proved correct. For a short time later James A. Hahn, foreman for Contractor Henry Ruel, and Ed Cook, a laborer, caught sight of a floater passing underneath the temporary bridge at the mouth of that stream.

The two men hastily put out in a boat and succeeded in capturing the floating body, which they towed ashore and fastened. Dr. Walter Dierker, county coroner, was notified and after examining the body and removing a number of well-preserved letters written in some foreign language, turned the body over to County Undertaker John Dierker to be prepared for burial.

The body was decomposed beyond possible identification and had been in the water some time. The skull and other bones of the body were exposed and held intact only by the clothes. The man was fully dressed, save for a hat.

Coroner Dierker left the letters at a Scioto street home for a foreigner to translate, and hopes to establish the unknown's identity. It is thought he may have been one of the missing victims of the big floods around Kenton some weeks ago.

LABORING MEN'S MEETING BOOSTS FOR "DRY OHIO"

(Contributed)

An interesting and rather novel meeting of workmen and executives of the industries of the city was held last night. It is not often that the workmen approach employers for assistance and find so ready a response as was elicited at this gathering. A. A. Oakes, president of the Scioto County Branch of the Workmen's Protective and Publicity Association, had, through Mr. C. M. Woyand, manager of the Scioto County Anti-Saloon League, invited the executives of industries of the city to meet with committees of their organization, in order to explain its plans and solicit the cooperation of the executives in making Ohio dry. Over 100 executives responded to this invitation.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. Woyand. A. A. Oakes took the floor and presented the plans of the workmen. He stated that labor was fast awakening to the fact that booze is labor's worst enemy, and that the workmen felt it was time for them to make the fight for Ohio dry as their's. What was wanted was the endorsement of the executives in this effort to acquaint workmen with the facts concerning the liquor evil.

J. C. Lewis, state secretary of the Workmen's Protective and Publicity Association, also addressed the meeting. He gave further details of the plans of the organization. He emphatically denied the current rumor that organized labor endorsed booze and the saloon. He cited numerous facts to prove his contentions. Committees of various local bodies of the Workmen's organization were represented by 22 associates, a number of whom addressed the meeting.

After a general discussion, in which prominent executives of various industries spoke, the executives present unanimously endorsed the plans adopted by the workmen. The workmen's committees then withdrew and a permanent organization of executives was formed for the purpose of supporting and encouraging the workmen in the work which they had started.

Mr. Karey is from Cincinnati, where he promoted many sporting events.

Arrangements have been made for the best Athletic Show ever held in Portsmouth for next Tuesday evening at the club's home, Bohemian hall, Galia and Lawson streets.

The show will consist of three fast wrestling matches, two sparring bouts, and a battle royal by five young colored boys.

The club is meeting with fine success and arrangements are already being made for a football and basketball team.

Claims Wife Drove Him From Home 7 Times; Is Divorced

George Colvin was granted a divorce by Judge Thomas in common pleas court Thursday morning from his wife, Jennie Colvin, whom he married in 1904, on the ground of gross neglect and cruelty. He claimed on the stand that his wife drove him from home seven times in the past few years and was too chummy with other men.

The wife, who resides in the rear of 1301 Findlay street, appeared in response to an order from the court, and testified that her husband came home drunk frequently, which, she said, was the cause of their trouble. She admitted that he provided well for her, and denied intimate relations with Robert Jones, Hub Hewitt, or any other men, as charged by her husband. She admitted having threatened to poison her husband, and declared that she was in earnest, if he left her as he had threatened. She also asserted that her husband was "too thick with Lucy Snow."

Custody of the six-year-old child was awarded to Mrs. Colvin by the court. Millar and Middlethwait were Colvin's attorneys.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than a cure, states a well-known authority. He is advised to drink water; keep his feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water. Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid, which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of its impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

Mystery Shrouds Baker's Injuries; He Claims An Assault

Lying in a ward at the Hempstead hospital, Washington, D. C., white, an Irving Drew shoe worker, living in Brewery Hill, low, claims he was the victim of an assault in the N. & W. railroad cut, near Eleventh street, shortly before midnight Thursday. Two ugly scalp wounds and a bruised left eye which is swollen shut, comprise his injuries, which are not thought to be serious.

Police officers found Baker shortly after the Columbus train pulled into the N. & W. depot and it was at first thought he had been struck by a train. Baker, who will talk only to his physician, Dr. S. S. Halderman, either does not know or will not tell who is alleged assailant was.

The victim was under the influence of liquor when he was first treated.

The police are investigating a tip that the hat found in the yard of the Charles Stahl home after Mrs. Stahl put two men to rout with a ball bat Thursday night may be that of young Baker. The men had boldly entered the yard of the Stahl home and refused to leave when ordered.

Baker's condition was so improved late Friday afternoon, that he was dismissed from the hospital.

He continued to refuse to make a statement.

Lewis Withdraws As G.O.P. Candidate

Greatly surprised were the many political friends of W. D. Lewis, of New Boston, when he announced Friday that he had withdrawn as Republican candidate for mayor of the village. This leaves Lawrence Fitch and M. T. Stewart as the Republican candidates.

Ex-Mayor Lewis said Friday, when asked why he withdrew, "I got out of the race because I thought it best, as there is too many to have in the field and it would never do to have the Republican party divided into three factions."

Lewis was considered by many as the one best bet of the Republican party in the field. He holds a splendid job as foreman over shear-men at the steel plant.

Calls Harmony Meeting "Damnable Political Trick."

Chief Of Police Promised To Six By One Candidate Declares Nate Gilliland

Before a pretentious crowd of voters, Attorney N. B. Gilliland in an address made at the Market street square Thursday night laid emphasis on the fact that his record was that of champion of the poor man and of the working classes. Mr. Gilliland stated that while he had suffered insults and rather small treatment because of his position toward the poor man and the oppressed, he was always true to his cause and in cases where his clients were unable to pay him he never forced them to do so.

Attorney N. B. Gilliland, continuing in his address, stated that he wore no man's collar, and acknowledged no boss. He claimed that Charles McCormick, one of his opponents, in the race for nomination for mayor on the Republican ticket, was owned by Attorney Henry T. Bannon and that Mr. Bannon stood for the large corporate interests. He further stated that H. H. (Bert) Kaps, another candidate for the nomination, was controlled by Charles E. Hard, who stood for personal politics and that Attorney George M. Osborn, a third candidate for the nomination was championed by Wells A. Hutchins and Pearl E. Selby.

Mr. Gilliland stated that he championed the people's cause and that it was on this platform that he was seeking the nomination.

If elected Attorney N. B. Gilliland stated that he would give justice to all and mercy to the poor. He stated that he would not shield the rich and powerful. According to Mr. Gilliland, one of his opponents had promised the job of chief of police to six different men. He said that he had made no pledges of appointments to any one and that if he was elected he would make appointments that would prove satisfactory to the voters.

There will be no hospital scandals and any one appointed during his administration, in case he is elected, and found guilty of misconduct of office or not doing his duty will be discharged, he stated.

Mr. Gilliland further stated that he intended to support the nominee but that those nominated by the bosses would be controlled by the bosses.

Mr. Gilliland denounced the "harmony" meeting to select the Republican candidate for nomination as "loaded and loaded with Kaps men at that and branded it as a damnable political trick."

In answer to the police judge issue, injected into the campaign by the McCormick forces,

Mr. Gilliland stated that his legal training would enable him to look after those duties competently, and that there would be no need of this additional expense to the city. He stated that he regarded this advocacy of the McCormick forces as simply an excuse to create another office and because Mr. McCormick has no legal training.

Mr. Gilliland will speak tonight (Friday) at the Flood and Blake corner in the East End at 7 o'clock and at the corner of Eighth and Kendall avenue at 8 o'clock. Saturday night he will talk at the corner of Fifth and Chillicothe streets at 8 o'clock and Monday night at Twelfth and Railroad streets.

Woman Who Claimed She Has $1,000 On Deposit Is Said To Have "Financed" Beer Party

It developed at the hearing of Mrs. Minnie Cooper on a disorderly charge in police court Friday that the beer she drank at the Kinison home on Thirteenth street Wednesday evening was supplied by a tall, nicely dressed and refined appearing woman giving the name of Mrs. Mary McIntyre, of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. McIntyre, it also developed, had pleaded guilty to a charge of supplying liquor to Mrs. Cooper, at a private hearing in police court Thursday morning and paid a fine of $10 and costs, congratulating herself that she had gotten off so lucky. She said she was prominently connected and had $1,000 on deposit in a local bank. She explained her visit to the Kinison home as a friendly call having known Mr. Kinison before he came to Portsmouth but had never met his wife until she called at his home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Cooper, who has been separated from her husband, John Cooper, since the day he surprised her at an aged negro's shanty with W. A. Ellsworth, an N. & W. detective, who was later found guilty of disorderly conduct and fined in police court, and who subsequently lost his position, said her visit to the Kinison home was accidental. She had started out to call on a friend, Mrs. Hahn, but found her absent. She passed the Kinison home and stepped in to see Mrs. Kinison not knowing they had company in the person of the woman who was introduced to her as Mrs. McIntyre.

She said Mrs. McIntyre sent out after two bottles of beer and a half pint of whiskey, giving Mr. Kinison some extra money besides, telling him to drink what he wished over the bar. She said she (Mrs. Cooper) drank one bottle of beer. Mrs. McIntyre again sent out for a half dozen bottles of beer and another half pint of whiskey.

Mrs. Cooper said the Pittsburgh woman seemed to prefer the whiskey. All told she sent out three times, each time getting a half pint of whiskey. Soon Mrs. McIntyre fell down on the floor and accused her (Mrs. Cooper) of knocking her down. Mrs. Kinison, she said, stretched out on a bed. She herself took a seat at a window. She said she denied knocking the woman down and Mrs. McIntyre began preclaiming her social standing and declaring that she had come to her money honestly. Mrs. Cooper said they exchanged words for some time, and finally police ordered them to appear in court next day. She said all were drunk but herself.

The court directed Chief W. T. McCarty to call on and interview Mr. Kinison regarding the affair. Out of consideration for her two small children Mrs. Cooper, who is at present making her home with her mother, was let off with a suspended fine of $5.

RUSSIANS HEMMED, FIGHT WAY BACKWARDS

DEFEATED FORCES STRIVE TO REACH HOME TERRITORY

London, August 6.—With the great Russian fortresses of Warsaw and Lvov captured, and the fall of Biala, the capital of the Baltic provinces, the Austro-German onslaught has reached its height in the east, and the next step will be the German emperor's triumphant entry into the Polish capital. That event is likely soon to be followed by the pronouncement of a united and semi-autonomous Poland, embracing not only the territory wrested from the Russians, but the Austrian-crown lands of Galicia. Meantime the Russian armies are fighting their way backward toward Russia proper, trying to fend them off the railways running north and south, in order that the ends of the German snipers may not meet and in closing bring disaster to Russian arms. The position of the army of the Grand Duke Nicholas now is a matter of solicitude, as the occupation of Warsaw is believed to be a prelude to a greater purpose, that of enveloping the retreating forces. Petograd reports show the Grand Duke has retired to the right bank of the Vistula, both at Warsaw and Lvov, destroying the bridges of both points and contesting the German advance across the river. Back of the retreating Russians is the vast morass of Central Poland with few railways and primitive roads, making virtually impossible a quick movement of guns and supplies, while back of Warsaw and the only fortress available as a rallying point for the Russians is Brest-Litovsk. Thus the Russians are hemmed by General Von Budowa's columns bending southward and by Field Marshal Von Mackensen's southern army bending northward. The fall of Lvov proper, however, is not a Russian retreat, but a forced one from the west of the city, is officially reported today in bulletins both from Berlin and Vienna. The occupation of Warsaw now is centering attention on a series of important events that are being arranged. First will be the selection of a German governor. Reports indicate the appointee will be a German prince, possibly a son of the German emperor, or an Austrian archduke.

IVANGOROD OCCUPIED BY AUSTRO-GERMANS

Vienna, August 6.—(Via London)—The occupation of Ivangorod yesterday by Austro-German forces is announced in an official telegram from the front. The evacuation of Ivangorod apparently was admitted last night by Petograd in an official statement, which said: "In the Ivangorod district the Russians have crossed to the right bank of the Vistula, blowing up the bridges behind them." A statement issued later in the night explained that the Ivangorod forts were not properly constructed for modern warfare. This statement was made in reply to the Austrian claim "that a great victory was achieved in Ivangorod capture." It further states that all the provisions in the city were "methodically removed, after which the Russian rear guard blew up the concrete bases supporting the brick casemates of the forts, destroyed the bridges and crossed the river. Ivangorod is located at the confluence of the Vistula and the Vuprz rivers. It is situated on the railroad running to Laskow and Brest-Litovsk and also on a line connecting with Warsaw.

FRENCH DISAPPOINTED

Paris, August 6.—While the fall of Warsaw had been discounted here some time ago, the delay in the capture of the city had given rise to the hope that the Polish capital might still be saved and its occupation by the Germans is something of a disappointment to the French public. The military necessities are fully recognized, but it is also fully recognized that the Germans will proclaim a great victory from which the people of that country will derive great encouragement. The victory is in no way decisive because the Russian army remains intact and the news generally has been received stoically.

Floating Hotel To Close, Girls Grieve

New York, August 6.—Warning that the oldest hotel in New York will be closed on August 28, when more than fifty working girls are to be sent ashore from the ship Jacob A. Stambler, today caused much unhappiness among the occupants of the floating hotel. A notice posted on the bulletin board of the Stambler's deck road that Arkbuckle's Deep Sea Hotel Company has decided to retire from the hotel business and will serve no meals after August 28. For years the Stambler has been a home for girls employed in shops and stores, at a cost to them varying from $2.50 to $3.50 a week. Many of them earned only $4 a week and fourteen of the girls are now unemployed. The city fire department had ordered changes to be made in the Stambler, and it was said that the company did not wish to go to the expense of making them. The old ship, built in 1867, was purchased by John Arkbuckle in 1901 and for several years has been moored at a pier in the East river as a home for girls.

SCENES IN ERIE WHEN FLOOD BROUGHT DESTRUCTION AND DEATH

These pictures were taken by Erie, Pa., Wednesday morning, after a flood had swept through the city, killing and injuring scores and destroying property valued at about $2,000,000. Upper photo was taken from porch of home, washed down three blocks to edge of Mill street bridge over Mill creek. Four of former occupants of house in center are missing. Lower photo shows effect of flood from Twelfth street to Tenth street, looking from the corner of French and Twelfth streets. House in middle foreground, which stood on left bank of Mill creek, was scene of daring and almost fatal feat of Fire Chief McMahon and four firemen in rescuing flood victims.

OHIO GRAPE GROWERS ASK ASSISTANCE

Fremont, August 6.—Grape growers in the vicinity of Sandusky have asked the assistance of Congressmen Overmeyer in their campaign against the berry moth. They say the grape industry will be ruined in a few years, if the pest is not curbed. The grape interests want an experiment station established in the Island fruit district, in order that the moth can be studied. Congressman Overmeyer is taking up the matter with the Ohio Experiment Station at Wooster, and the agricultural department at Washington.

SUNDAY RACES

Kalamazoo, Mich., August 6.—One result of the continued rain, which has caused repeated postponements of the Kalamazoo Grand Circuit meeting, may be the first Sunday racing on a mile track in Michigan. Present plans look to the holding of the $6,000 free-for-all pacing championship on Sunday, if the weather permits. The authorities do not see anything wrong in it, for there will be no betting and the bar was abolished at the spring election, when the county voted dry. "We have had automobile races here on Sunday, with enormous crowds, also the ball games drew well on that day, and I don't see where there is harm in horse racing," said William P. Engelmann, secretary of the local driving club. "What I propose is not a race; it is an exhibition among the champion pacers for three heats. The drivers are willing and the people here are very anxious to see William and Directum measure strides. "While there is a rule against Sunday racing, so I understand, I do not consider it would apply as I intend to stage an exhibition, not a race to go on the books and records. Unless some unforeseen angle arises, and the sun shines, I think I will try it.

CONVICT IS SHOT TO DEATH BY GUARD IN OHIO PENITENTIARY

Columbus, August 6.—(George) Bayso, 38, serving an indeterminate sentence from Cuyahoga county for forgery, was shot to death at the penitentiary early this morning by Guard Earl Hostetter. Bayso was quarantined in a cell with Roy Cole, who is serving 10 years from Licking county for shooting with intent to kill. The guard was attracted to the cell by Cole's outcries. Cole had been attacked by Bayso with a sharp piece of steel. When Hostetter opened the cell door Bayso made at him. Bayso fell dead when the guard fired one shot. Cole has 90 stab wounds on his body. Bayso was an Austrian and began his term July 9 last. The knife used by Bayso was a piece of steel, which he had sharpened to a point. For a handle he had wrapped a rag around one end of the instrument, which, it is thought, he picked up in the yard and slipped it into his cell. Cole could give no motive for Bayso's attack on him.

Says U. S. Will Be Forced To Use Arms

Toledo, August 6.—Henry Morris, at one time advisor to Governor W. P. Hunt, of Arizona, who has traveled through Mexico, and who recently returned from that strife-ridden republic, declared at a local hotel last night, where he is stopping, that the United States government will find it necessary to use arms in Mexico. "Any policy of the administration at Washington that does not contemplate armed intervention in Mexico would be futile, and, in my opinion, any other policy will be President Wilson's political undoing," said Morris. "I believe the time will come when every life that has been lost in Mexico will be placed at President Wilson's door." Morris characterized Carranza as crafty and as the one man in the Mexican republic that was feared by the late President Diaz, and Villa as a most remarkable character, who holds human life cheaply. Takes Former Job Charles T. Kinsey, who has been located in Roanoke, Va., for the past twenty months, has just resumed his former position in the N. & W. division engineer's office here.

MINERS IN FRANCE GO ON STRIKE

Havrre, France, August 6.—Miners in the Mons district have gone on a strike. According to reports received here, groups of miners collided with German soldiers and a serious riot followed, during which two Germans and seven miners were killed. Four battalions of the landwehr have been sent to Mons and two to Charleroi. Intense unrest is reported to prevail throughout that region. The rich Belgian coal mining district, of which Mons is the center, is called Borinage, and the miners are known as Borains.

NUMBER OF STUDENTS SHOW BIG INCREASE

Washington, August 6.—An increase of nearly seven per cent in the number of students in American colleges, universities and technological schools in 1914 over the previous year is shown in the annual report of the committee of education which has just been made public. The figures are 216,433 compared with 202,231 in 1913. The report shows that men still outnumber women in higher education. There were in colleges 139,373 men in 1914 and 77,120 women, as compared with 128,644 men and 73,587 women in 1913. Despite higher standards of admission and graduation, college enrollment has more than tripled since 1890.

DESTROY 377,364,188 PIECES OF MONEY

Washington, August 6.—Redeemed paper money with a nominal value of $1,541,131,111 in 377,364,188 pieces was destroyed by the treasury department during the fiscal year ending June 30. Officials estimate the notes weighed 590 tons and that about 5,000,000 worth was destroyed each day. In 1895 only seventy million pieces of paper money, with a nominal value of $144,319,920 were destroyed. Regulations for the destruction of paper money have recently been codified and revised by the treasury department.

PREDICTS END OF RUSSIAN DEFENSE

Amsterdam, August 6.—(Via London)—"A lasting Russian offensive is no longer to be expected in the near future," says Major Morant, military critic of the Berlin Tageblatt, in a review of the situation in Poland. "Henceforth, as soon as our attack begins, the Russian defense must crumble, because it is no longer adequately supported by rifles and machine guns. We doubt the possibility of reorganizing the Russian army during the present war."

WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

San Francisco, August 6.—John Horgan, of St. Louis, today is champion professional three cushion billiardist, having defeated George Moore, of New York, title holder last night 25 to 17. The match was played in 23 innings. Horgan had a high run of fund Moore five. Horgan is a former title holder.

OCTOBER 6-7-8-9

LOOTERS ARE SHOT BY CITIZENS OF ERIE; TROOPERS ON GUARD

Erie, Pa., August 6.—Troopers of the state constabulary patrolled the flood section today, enforcing strictly the regulations of Pennsylvania health officers and the Erie city council, while increased forces of workers, in their search for bodies, went further into the great masses of wreckage piled along Mill Creek by Tuesday night's flood. Sensational rumors of looting during the night kept the police busy, and early today it became known that Guy Fowler, a reporter on the Erie Dispatch had shot a man who was alleged to have been seen taking articles from a house that had been abandoned by its occupants. The man was later taken to the Hamat hospital where it was said he had been shot in the shoulder, but that his condition was not dangerous. Other reports of looting were that a citizen had shot a man on Twelfth street but the police declared they had been unable to find the wounded man. An order to the constabulary and the police was to suppress looting with a stern hand, and that all suspected persons were to be taken to police headquarters without delay. Three hundred additional workmen were placed on the streets with the coming of dawn and the piles of demolished buildings were attacked vigorously under the direction of engineers who have volunteered their services to the city. It was expected that considerable headway would be made before nightfall, as the city authorities planned to add fully 1,000 men to the working forces. Intense excitement was caused just before midnight when a heavy rainfall started a crowd along Fourth and Fifth streets, shouting, "Look out, another flood is coming." Scores of frightened men and women caught up their children and ran into the streets spreading the alarm until that section of the city was filled with people hurrying toward higher ground. A squad of policemen was hurried to the scene and restored quiet. Efforts to relieve the distress continue with amazing success. More than 400 were fed in the Rescue station on Station street during the night while preparations were made to serve breakfast to many more. The armory housed many of the homeless during the night, while private houses cared for many others. Mayor Stern's relief fund continued to grow, having passed $14,000 early in the day. Additional offers of assistance from outside sources came in, but the committee declined all of them with the assertion that the city could take care of its destitute till they were again at work. C. A. Emerson, Jr., acting chief engineer and his assistants, Howard E. Moses, S. E. Park, Jr., the sanitary engineers, sent here by the state board of health, faced a hard problem in their efforts to keep down disease. In addition to the bodies of human beings, believed to be in the debris, it was thought that numbers of cattle, hogs and sheep had been caught in the flood and their bodies would soon become a menace. The ripping up of sewers, destructions of sanitary systems throughout the entire length of the damaged area, caused the engineers to bend their first efforts in that direction while inoculation against typhoid was carried on with the assistance of the city health authorities.

WILL SEND APPEAL TO MEXICAN LEADERS

Washington, August 6.—The conference between Secretary Lansing and six Pan-American diplomats whose co-operation was sought by President Wilson in his plan to restore peace in Mexico was continued today.

No announcement of the conclusions of the series of conferences begun yesterday, is looked for until a program has been perfected. The conferees decline to discuss the proceedings. Whatever plan of action is agreed upon will be submitted to all of the Pan-American nations for approval although it is understood they already have pledged support to concerted action. It is considered likely that one of the first results of the conference will be a final appeal to all the Mexican factional leaders to accommodate their differences and restore peace. This probably will be sent in a few days and will be intended especially for the Carranza element which all along has declined to participate in a conference. The message to General Carranza will ask that he lay down his arms and join with his adversaries in setting up a government the United States will recognize. It will insist that the answer within a stipulated time. The character of the final plans for restoration of peace depends largely on Carranza's response. General Villa and other Mexican leaders have indicated a willingness to participate in a peace conference. CAN'T SPEND ESTATE Chicago, August 6.—Although Catherine Barker, who recently was wedded to Howard Spaulding, Jr., was possessed of an estate said to approximate $30,000,000, her husband cannot collect one cent of the income, it became known today, when a trust deed of the estate of the late John H. Barker, car manufacturer, was found in the office of probate court of Cook county. The deed provides that the heirs shall receive $40,000 a year until she is 21 years old. Then she is to receive $150,000 a year until she is 26 years old; after that time she is to receive the entire income of the trust fund, except what is necessary to pay other annuities. It also provides that payments to Mrs. Spaulding "are to be made directly to her by check, or draft, payable to her order, and shall not be made to any other persons, or upon written or verbal order given by her, or upon any transfer or assignment made by her, or created by operation of law." Mrs. Spaulding is given the power to dispose of the estate by will.

HOISTING THEMSELVES

Everyone of the five C. O. P. candidates for mayor, either by word of own mouth, or by his literary bureau, shouts it from the housetops, that none, except himself is fit to be mayor, and it must be confessed all offer most cogent reasons why the others are unfit, by no means convincing of his own fitness.

That is a sure and also a laughable case of hoisting by one's own petard. For here is the full proposition: Unreservedly, after pronouncing the unfitness of his opponents, the pledge is made that he will support the party nominee, whoever he may be. See the absurdity of it. A man seeks office, tells the voters others are incompetent for its duties, but if any of them be nominated, rather than himself, he will support the party nominee. Thereby he makes himself unfit, because no man, who expresses a deliberate purpose to support for office some person, who is altogether unfit, can be fit himself. He is lacking in the sense that the office belongs to all the people, and is to be administered for them, and with that lack it is impossible for him to be competent. In a view of the whole situation, it looks like a conspiracy to make it impossible to deny that vindication of its course that "the executive officer" is seeking.

AS WE READ THEM

There are more than half a hundred other papers that come to the Times and called in the language of the craft exchanges, The Times going to all of them in return.

It is surprising how much of character, or lack of it, appears in or is absent from them. They vary in welcome and admiration as much as do personal acquaintances and friends. Some how both the town and the personality of the makers seems reflected. Some are old and staid as are the places in which they are printed, others absolutely colorless, as must be their communities and a number are vibrant and vital, may be more nearly reflecting the quality of their editors. It is not alone though, the dailies that are to be found in this class. There are several weekly publications that carry as much animation and applied ability as any and that always gets a glance of welcome, even if there be no time to read them.

Strangest of all, though, if there should be here and there one that rasps and irritates just for the world like some annoying person that circumstances compel you to associate with at times. We have in mind two of especially extravagant pretension to virtue that are overlastingly and eternally prating about morals and vice, manfully lauding the one and cautiously denouncing the other. And we contemptuously toss them aside as whitened sepulchres, rotten like some other hypocrites we know.

A jury at Clarksburg, W. Va., has acquitted a young man, proven of having a small flask of liquor in his pocket, on the constitutional ground that the punishment provided for the offense, not less than a fine of $100, with prison term additional, was cruel and unusual. In a word, the jury did a little bit of constitutionizing in its own way.

The dog poisoner is wreaking frightful slaughter at Parkersburg. Considering the character and looks of the West Virginia press, it is not to be wondered at all, that the local press does not seeth with indignation, to the contrary is rather inclined to receive the rayages as something of a blessing.

A subscriber wants to know why cows give more milk than they used to? Funny he doesn't notice how rains are falling steadily all over the country and every well and cistern is full to overflowing.

As we listen to the vociferous wind-jamming of the vocal representatives of candidates we conclude "nobody is responsible for nothing" in a city government, but it is perfectly legitimate to claim credit for something that was never done.

It isn't surprising that Ironton couldn't keep up the pace when a live one like the Peerless finds the going mighty rough and uncertain.

Now, that man Edison is some smart. He says a food jag is worse than a whiskey jag. He would solve that high cost of living by eating less, about one-third less and drinking nothing at all.

It is said the difference between woman's pleasures and a man's is that of the first off begets heartache, while that of the latter leaves headaches.

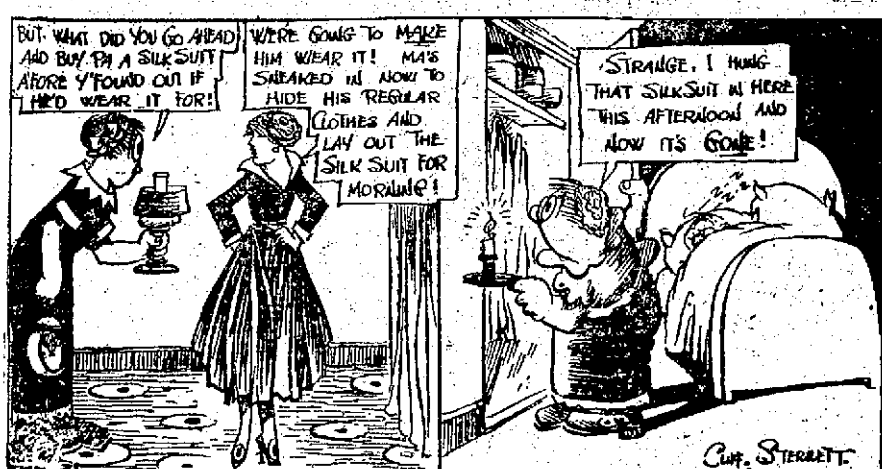

Everywhere else, as here, they are discussing the danger of the automobile headlight and doing nothing.

The Kaps pledges stuck too long in "the thirteens" to augur fortuitously.

Ever notice, says the cynic, that when a man's mother-in-law decides to make her daughter a visit she never misses the train.

POLLY AND HER PALS

FLOOD TIDE

THE POWER OF THE SHERIFF

Following some serious rioting, at Bayonne, New Jersey, in which several persons were killed, and which was settled with exceeding promptness by some arbitrary methods of the sheriff, discussion has arisen as to what are the powers of the sheriff.

The best answer to that is to say, in the common law of the land, in a crisis of disorder, there is no limit, except of the nerve and the ability of the sheriff himself.

An incumbent, like the New Jersey official can do practically anything. For instance he entered a factory and disarmed guards, huddled the management together and made them promise to treat fairly and justly those that came back to work; he peremptorily forbid the strikers to hold meetings, arrested the leather lungs among them and gave them so many minutes to get out, did all the talking to the strikers himself and settled the trouble in two or three days.

That, however, was largely individual, rested in and resulted largely from the manner of a man the sheriff was. But speaking generally, a sheriff, in time of disorder, is the whole people. Any step he thinks necessary to preserve the peace, he can take. At his beck and call every able-bodied citizen must come to him, take up arms and even slay and kill at his order. This is a dangerous authority, indeed; the weak man fears to use it and the reckless makes it a frightful engine of wanton destruction and slaughter. In the New Jersey instance the man and the power were rightly balanced and exercised, so it all ended happily.

There are some things the worst of us will not do. Harry Thaw positively refuses to go into vaudeville.

After all the way to Warsaw has been longer than we and our friend Bill calculated.

Mexico is a good deal like a running sore, it sort of quiets down, only, to break out with worse inflammation.

OLD NEW YORK
By M. J. M. M.

New York, August 6.—There are two young men in New York who make their living in an odd way. They hire out as heroes for movie trials. When the regular leading actor balks at circus stunts the director calls in Edward Gordon and John Austin, whose favorite outdoor sport is riding motorcycles over high cliffs and open draw bridges.

The thrill makers at one time followed the perilous occupation of ascending in balloons at county fairs. As their courage grew they came to New York and found a ready market for their nerve. Austin has descended the side of the huge Equitable building hand over hand on a rope. He also, while playing the part of a convict, leaped from a ferryboat into the floating ice of the Hudson last winter.

Gordon and Austin are educated, steady and abstemious. They say that their temperaments demand thrills. Monotony is the bane of their existence and adventure is the relish with which they flavor life.

The two dollar movie has also arrived. The Knickerbocker long known as the society theater because of its pretentious productions has been secured by a syndicate that will put on straight two dollar movie shows and the audience will dress as they would for the opera.

The Kind Words Club has been organized. Anybody can join. Bishop Charles D. Williams, of Michigan, who is spending a month in New York, is sponsor and suggester of the new organization. The club members are pledged to speak or write a word of praise whenever a kind, courteous or polite act comes under their observation.

If a member of the club sees a conductor help an aged lady to alight from a street car, it is his duty to compliment the railway employee. If a policeman is polite to a stranger or performs some similar act of courtesy it is the duty of the member to write a letter to his newspaper about it. In short it is the aim of the club to recognize kind acts whenever they are performed.

The swan song of a race is revealed in the census count of 4,451 Indians in New York against 5,060 in 1905. Few are full bred. In the north their veins carry pale face blood and Long Island they are almost negroes.

Before the white man came, the Central New York Indian was among the finest of his race. A high civilization marked his log houses and well tilled fields, and his political keenness prefigured the Seymours, Murrys, and Fans.

He held the passes from the Hudson by Wood's Creek to Lake Champlain and from the Mohawk by Oneida Lake to Ontario and the interior—the routes later, of the canals and railroads, that made the Empire State.

Broadway's newest drink—non-intoxicating, of course, is called a "Cool Quick." Here is the way to make it: Take one large tumbler half filled with ice, the juice from half a lime, fill with ginger ale and after stirring it well decorate with mint. Broadway mostly likes a kick in its beverages, but somehow it has taken to the new invention of the mixologist. If you have never indulged, take it home and try it on the refrigerator. It's harmless, anyway.

Another typical New York romance has just become public. It concerns the romantic transfer of Myrtle Higgins, a poor girl, from a hall room to the St. Regis bridal suite. In an incidental manner Miss Higgins met Col. Billy Rowe, Jr., well known about town. There was quite a difference in their ages but Col. Rowe won her over. And so—as the novelists say—they were married.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR,
LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Grandma's recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur darkens so naturally that nobody can tell.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also cures dandruff, itching scalp and keeps falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray has disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

PORTSMOUTH POLICEMAN GETS A BLACK EYE IN NEW BOSTON

Assailant Said To Have Been Jealous

Ray Moore, city policeman, was the victim of an assault and was arrested and locked up in the village jail when he went to New Boston, Thursday afternoon, on business.

Clifford Counts, who has been in more fights than any man in New Boston, was Moore's assailant. According to Moore, he had stepped from a street car about four o'clock and had proceeded only a few steps when Counts "kicked" him, saying, "Have you seen my father-in-law lately?" As Moore replied "No," Counts struck him, says Moore, Harry Jones, of Salt Lake, Ky., in Counts' father-in-law.

According to Moore, two other strangers jumped onto him, but Charles Appleton and Will Tammey, who were near at hand, stopped the scuffle, Appleton holding Moore and Tammey holding Counts.

Moore was knocked to the ground and received two fist blows on his head, he having a black and blue mark above his eye and a black eye. Moore did not return a blow, not wishing to have trouble.

Counts is said to have told friends that Moore had been flirting with his wife of a few months, but this Moore strongly denies. Moore knew Counts' wife when they boarded at the same house in this city, and he took her to two shows, and that was the extent of their relations according to Moore.

Moore was placed under arrest by Marshal Will Davis, and locked up for several hours until a $25 bond was furnished by a fellow officer.

Counts was not arrested at the time, but on his release Moore swore out a warrant for his arrest, charging him with assault and battery. Counts could not be located Thursday night and friends say he left for Kentucky.

Chief McCarty says that Moore ought to have arrested Counts, as he had full power under the law. Marshal Davis says he arrested Moore as he was in trouble in the village before, and because he was carrying a gun.

An effort is being made to capture Counts, who has a workhouse sentence hanging over him. He served a sentence at the workhouse not long ago.

BAKER IS IN HOSPITAL WITH BANGED UP HEAD; ASSAILANT UNKNOWN

Lying in a ward at the Hempstead hospital, Washington, Baker, white, an Irving Drew shoe worker, living in Brewery Hollow, claims he was the victim of an assault in the N. & W. railroad cut near Eleventh street, shortly before midnight Thursday. Two ugly scalp wounds and a bruised left eye which is swollen shut, comprise his injuries, which are not thought to be serious.

Police officers found Baker shortly after the Columbus train pulled into the N. & W. depot and it was at first thought he had been struck by a train. Baker, who will talk only to his physician, Dr. S. S. Halderman, either does not know or will not tell who is alleged assailant was.

The victim was under the influence of liquor when he was first treated.

The police are investigating a tip that the hat found in the yard of the Charles Stahl home after Mrs. Stahl put two men to rout with a ball bat Thursday night may be that of young Baker. The men had boldly entered the yard of the Stahl home and refused to leave when ordered.

Gives $25,000,000 For The Removal Of Warsaw's Factories

London, Aug. 6.—The Russian war office has set aside $25,000,000 to help pay the cost of the removal of Warsaw's factories to the interior of the empire, says the Petrograd correspondent of the Times.

In the region of Ostrolenka and the mouth of Skawa the enemy threatened to destroy our rear communications, while their offensive in the Lomza district, which is beginning to overshadow the Vistula in strategic importance, the Germans are striving to effect a deep envelopment of our forces on the Vistula river. Should this offensive be further developed it possibly will be directed against Bialystok and Brest-Litovsk from the north. It is quite likely Field Marshal Von Mackensen will transfer his troops from the Chelm district to co-operate in this attempt. Another factor was the auxiliary operation on both banks of the Vistula against Lukow intended to cut the Ivandograd-Lukow line.

Today's news warrants the conclusion that the fate of Riga is sealed. The country on this side of the Miusa, where fighting is proceeding at present, does not afford the Russians a line capable of stemming the enemy's advance but is suitable merely for rear guard action. The river Dvina is intrinsically a more formidable obstacle but as Riga is situated on both sides of the river, it does not afford opportunities for effective defense.

Two corps of General Von Buelow's army already have reached the Miusa. The evacuation of Riga is in full swing. The streets are packed with dense crowds and the stations are besieged with those anxious to leave.

"The evacuation of Mitau was effected by the post office employees and the police last Saturday. German residents were greatly delighted at the arrival of their countrymen. They had made no secret of their sympathies."

Praise For The Fresh Air Camp EXCAVATING HILLSIDE AT IDLEWILD

The Fresh Air Camp conducted by the local Anti-Tuberculosis League is making good. The following unsolicited communication from a young man who has been a patient at the camp for several weeks is sufficient proof: The Anti-Tuberculosis League, City.

Dear Friends:—Regarding the Fresh Air Camp, I am glad for the opportunity to express the experience I have gained from my two weeks' stay here.

I am sure at the time of entering this camp my physical condition would not have permitted me to have traveled to another climate. But if said condition would have permitted me to go, it would have been impossible to have gained better results than has been accomplished in this local camp.

Within the past four weeks I have had twenty-two hemorrhages, twenty before entering the camp and two since. Owing to the fresh air and good treatment I have received constantly, I have been able to respond from my weakened condition until at present it is hardly noticeable.

I hope all the people will soon realize the necessity of such a movement, and what can be accomplished at home as well or better than abroad.

I am more than glad to recommend the camp, good treatment, and sanitary conditions found therein, and to congratulate the promoters. (Signed)

W. C. RANKIN.
The members of the league are well pleased with what has been accomplished so far and hope that many other people in the early stage of tuberculosis will avail themselves of the opportunity to regain their health at home. It is no longer necessary to go far away from home and live among strangers. Here your relatives can visit you daily, your own family physician can prescribe for you, and your expenses are nothing unless you are able and desire to pay for your board.

BODY FOUND IN SCIOTO MAY BE THAT OF VICTIM OF RECENT BIG FLOOD

The telephone message received by the police from a point up the Scioto street afternoon, that the body of a man was seen floating down the Scioto river, proved correct for a short time later James Ansin, foreman for Contractor Henry Kohl, and Ed Cook, a laborer, caught sight of a float passing underneath the temporary bridge at the mouth of that stream.

The two men hastily put out in a boat and succeeded in capturing the floating body, which they towed ashore and fastened. Dr. Walter Deahler, county coroner, was notified and after examining the body and removing a number of well-preserved letters, written in some foreign language, turned the body over to County Undertaker John Dice to be prepared for burial.

The body was decomposed beyond possible identification and had been in the water some time. The skull and other bones of the body were exposed and held intact only by the clothes. The man was fully dressed, save for a hat.

Coroner Deahler left the letters at a Scioto street home for a foreigner to translate and hopes to establish the unknown's identity. It is thought he may have been one of the missing victims of the big floods around Kenton some weeks ago.

"Sure, an' yo' ter be congratulated." "Sure, an' I ain't half good enough fer her," an' Paul Hawley Bushblinder west back on th' McCloskey shop whistling. DANGER TO BRIDGE IS BELIEVED PASSED; NOW OPEN TO TRAFFIC

The Scioto river was still rising sharply Friday morning, but not running out as swiftly as on Thursday and all danger to the newly completed temporary bridge was believed to be over.

Although the Columbus rise was thought to have reached Portsmouth Friday morning, there was a total absence of drift and, unless the stream should rise considerably more and bring a run of drift, no trouble is anticipated. The travel over the bridge, which was suspended during the night to avoid possible accidents, was resumed early Friday.
